Dear Folk at Home:

Xmas all over! I guess next Xmas will see us back however.

I have just returned from the Batt<sup>y</sup>. I got a pass & went out to see the boys this afternoon. It is about 20 Kilos. across the Rhine, we went out on the electric car, it is just a nice ride. They have a good place, Lewie is living in a swell house.

I was on guard Xmas eve but was relieved on Xmas morning so had the rest of the day off. We had Xmas dinner in Casselruhe Hotel, it is a swell place, I enclosed some photos of the place. The civilians helped cook up the dinner.

We didn't have a good Christmas as last that is as far as eats went but there is more satisfaction this year, having an ~~and~~ extra swell was bothering me at all I was glad to think it was my last in the army.

I am sending a folder of news of Bonn, let me know if you get them all right. There are some good ones there of the bridge.

We ended up last night by being all called out about eleven o'clock to go down town to settle some disturbances. That is part of our duty here, but every thing was quiet when we got there.

We were standing down in the square when got down town and somebody says: 'I wonder what they are waiting for here'. Oh! Scottie says 'They are waiting for the row to start'.

The unconcerned way he said it was comical. Scottie is a humblerjack from up the Ottawa.

27th I didn't finish this last night so am going to finish now. I was down to the Col. Canton & put a real job to night. Our old quartermaster 160th is in charge of the Canadian Col. Canton & as there were some of the fellows leaving there they wanted more help so Capt Todd asked me to go in. I make the 5th 160th fellow in there beside the Capt now. I am going down in the morning, that will furnish the shining & guards, and I will be able to get some cats too.

Will they are shipping the boys home from Blighty pretty fast. I guess we won't be many months behind them.

I am packing up for the morning so will cut this short. Will write som again & tell you how I like my new job.

Keep all these postcards that I send because I want them for souvenirs.

Love to all
Fussell
