Dear folk at Home;

I wrote just a couple of days ago but I thought I would write another short letter tonight. I received six letters yesterday, one from home about £1 of June with the two dollars. I have always got the money so far about two dollars is enough to send at a time, then in case a letter is lost it does not amount to a great deal. As far as meat goes, do not send me any because we get a good deal of meat to eat including the bullock. From the number of boxes you have mentioned in letters I think there must be three on the road. Miss Foxon's chocolates have not arrived yet either. She is good to the boys over here even she doesn't know them, she sent Ernest, Frank & Harry Jacques a box each. Ginger (H.F.) wanted me to write a letter for him & her thanking her for his but I declined so he thought he wouldn't write because he didn't know her.

I don't think you better send any more siphidiles because I haven't used what you sent yet. The best remedy is sucking & then a change in about a week. One of the Yankees traded shirts with one of our fellows the other night to get them just to see what they are like & have a chase I guess. He is just over of course so has been clear of them so far.

What was some price for the cattle where are prices going. I think there will likely be an awful slump on horses after this war, if you just saw a bugades transport it would surprise you; There is certainly an awful bunch in this country & good horses too, all looking wilt this summer.

Well I don't think many of the fellows who have been to Belgium would give much to the Belgian Relief Fund & I don't think I would either. There is a big bunch of them floating around Eng. & I don't like the look of them.

Well Fred H. is sure down & out now, if I ever meet him over here I don't think I will meet him at all, I will let him go on his way rejoicing. He will likely land in the sink before the soldiers long because he won't be able to take all he gets & say nothing. Those fellows are not like us in that we could get away with more than they can.

I went down to the dentist today & had a filling put in a tooth. Then I went to a larger town & made a few purchases, foolish etc; came home in a motor car, was back about noon. Well I think this is pretty good for a letter - soon again. Love all. Russell
